PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Hub Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Hub Group” or the “Company”), of proxies for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Wednesday, May 4, 2005, and any adjournment thereof (the “Annual Meeting”). This Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy are first being sent to stockholders on or about March 24, 2005.

The Company’s Class A common stock, $.01 par value (the “Class A Common Stock”), and the Class B common stock, $.01 par value (the “Class B Common Stock,” together with the Class A Common Stock, the “Common Stock”), are the only issued and outstanding classes of stock. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 15, 2005 (the “Record Date”), are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, the Company had [] shares of Class A Common Stock (each a “Class A Share”) and 662,296 shares of Class B Common Stock (each a “Class B Share,” and collectively with the Class A Shares, the “Shares”) outstanding and entitled to vote.

VOTING RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Shares represented by an effective proxy given by a stockholder will be voted as directed by the stockholder. If a properly signed proxy form is returned to the Company and one or more proposals are not marked, it will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Directors on all such proposals. A stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to the voting of the proxy by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company, by executing a later dated proxy or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Each Class A Share is entitled to one (1) vote and each Class B Share is entitled to twenty (20) votes. The holders of Shares having a majority of the votes that could be cast by the holders of all Shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions will be treated as Shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain Shares to vote on a particular matter, those Shares will be considered as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. As of March 1, 2005, the Yeager family members own all 662,296 shares of Class B Common Stock and 139,852 shares of Class A Common Stock. Consequently, the Yeager family controls approximately 58.2% of the voting power of the Company on all matters presented for stockholder action. The Yeager family members are parties to a stockholders’ agreement, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their shares of Class B Common Stock in accordance with the vote of the holders of a majority of such shares.

Election inspectors appointed for the meeting will tabulate votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting and such election inspectors will determine whether or not a quorum is present.

The Board of Directors knows of no matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those set forth in the Notice of 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders enclosed herewith. However, if any other matters do come before the meeting, it is intended that the holders of the proxies will vote thereon in their discretion. Any such other matter will require for its approval the affirmative vote of the holders of Shares having a majority of the votes present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present, or such greater vote as may be required under the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation, the Company’s By-laws or applicable law. A list of stockholders as of the record date will be available for inspection at the Annual Meeting and for a period of ten days prior to the Annual Meeting at the Company’s offices in Downers Grove.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors of the Company, as determined by the Board of Directors under Article III of the Company's By-laws, is currently six. Each director holds office until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal.

The nominees for whom the enclosed proxy is intended to be voted are set forth below. Each nominee for election as director currently serves as a director of the Company. It is not contemplated that any of these nominees will be unavailable for election, but if such a situation should arise, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the proxyholder for such person or persons as may be designated by the Board of Directors unless the stockholder has directed otherwise.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present. Abstentions, withholding of authority to vote in the election, or broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the elections. Stockholders are not allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Governance Committee. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, the full Board of Directors met nine times, the Audit Committee met eight times and the Compensation Committee met four times. The Nominating and Governance Committee met once. During 2004, all directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees thereof on which they served. The Company encourages each member of the Board of Directors to attend each annual meeting of shareholders. All directors attended the Company's 2004 annual meeting of shareholders held on May 13, 2004.

Audit Committee

The duties of the Audit Committee are to oversee the Company's internal control structure, review the Company's financial statements and other financial information to be included in the Company's 10-K and annual report to stockholders, select the independent auditors for the Company and its subsidiaries and review the Company's annual audit plan. The members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Eppen, Reaves and Slark. The Audit Committee has a written charter which is available on the Company's website at www.hubgroup.com.

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Eppen, Reaves and Slark are "independent" as that term is defined by Nasdaq. The Board of Directors has determined that the Audit Committee does not have an "audit committee financial expert" as that term is defined in the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. However, the Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Audit Committee are able to read and understand fundamental financial statements within the meaning of the Nasdaq Audit Committee requirements and that at least one of its members has the financial sophistication required by Nasdaq. The Board of Directors has determined that by satisfying the requirements of the Nasdaq listing standards with a member of the Audit Committee that has the requisite "financial sophistication" qualifications, the Audit Committee has the financial expertise necessary to fulfill the duties and the obligations of the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has concluded that the appointment of an "audit committee financial expert" is not necessary at this time.

Compensation Committee

The duties of the Compensation Committee are to determine the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and to make recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning the salaries of the Company's other officers, to exercise the authority of the Board of Directors concerning the Company's various long-term incentive plans and to advise the Board of Directors on other compensation and benefit matters. The members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Eppen, Reaves and Slark. Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent in accordance with the applicable corporate governance listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Nominating and Governance Committee

The duties of the Nominating and Governance Committee are to identify individuals qualified to become Board members and nominate the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders and develop and recommend to the Board the corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company. The members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are Messrs. Eppen, Reaves and Slark. Each member of the Nominating and Governance Committee is independent in accordance with the applicable corporate governance listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Nominating and Governance Committee has a written charter which is available on the Company's website at www.hubgroup.com.

Nominations of Directors

Directors may be nominated by the Board of Directors or by shareholders in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company. As a matter of course, the Nominating and Governance Committee will review the qualifications of various persons to determine whether they might make good candidates for consideration for membership on the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Governance Committee will review all proposed nominees for the Board of Directors, including those proposed by shareholders, in accordance with the mandate contained in its charter. This will include a review of the person's judgment, experience, independence, understanding of the Company's business or other related industries and such other factors as the Nominating and Governance Committee determines are relevant in light of the needs of the Board of Directors and the Company. The Nominating and Governance Committee will select qualified candidates and review its recommendations with the Board of Directors, which will decide whether to invite the candidate to be a nominee for election to the Board of Directors.

The Company has not paid a fee to any third party to identify or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees. Each nominee for election as a director is standing for reelection.

For a shareholder to submit a candidate for consideration by the Nominating and Governance Committee, a shareholder must notify the Company's Secretary. In addition, the Bylaws permit shareholders to nominate directors at a shareholder meeting. If a stockholder desires to nominate persons for election as directors at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders written notice of such stockholder's intent to make such a nomination must be given and received by the Secretary of the Company at 3050 Highland Parkway, Suite 100, Downers Grove, IL 60515, either by personal delivery or by United States mail no earlier than February 3, 2006 nor later than March 5, 2006. The presiding officer of the annual meeting of stockholders will, if the facts warrant, refuse to acknowledge a nomination not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure, and any such nomination not properly brought before the meeting will not be considered.

Controlled Company

The Board of Directors has determined that the Company is a “controlled company” as that term is defined by Nasdaq since the Yeager family, pursuant to their ownership of all Class B Common Stock, control 57.6% of the voting power of the Company. Pursuant to the Yeager Family Stockholder Agreement, the Yeager family members have agreed to vote all of their shares of Class B Common Stock in accordance with the vote of the holders of a majority of such shares.

Board of Directors Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee approves the policies under which compensation is paid or awarded to the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee consists of the three independent members of the Board.

In September 2003, the Board of Directors commissioned a third party to conduct a study of the Company's compensation program. This study included a survey of compensation practices in the transportation industry using a broad sample of companies within the industry. This independent study was used as the benchmark to determine competitive compensation ranges for senior executives. The Compensation Committee implemented certain recommendations from the independent study and, using this study, determined the compensation structure for 2004. The Compensation Committee intends to have a third party periodically conduct an independent study of compensation practices in the transportation industry to update the Company's benchmark of competitive compensation ranges for senior executives.

The 2004 Compensation structure approved by the Compensation Committee was based on the following philosophy:

Compensation Philosophy

The Company's compensation philosophy is designed to link executive performance to long-term stockholder value, connect pay with individual performance, maintain a compensation system that is competitive with the industry standards and attract and retain outstanding executives.

Description of Compensation Programs

The Company's executive compensation program has three components — base salary, annual incentives, and long-term incentives. Base salary and annual incentives are primarily designed to reward current and past performance. Long-term incentives are primarily designed to provide strong incentives for long-term future Company growth.

Base Salary To attract and retain qualified executives, base salary is determined using competitive criteria within the transportation industry. Salary increases are based on individual performance and, to a lesser extent, trends within the industry.

Annual Incentive The Company's bonus plan recognizes and rewards executives for taking actions that build the value of the Company, generate competitive total returns for stockholders, and provide value-added solutions for the Company's customers. For most executive officers, bonus compensation is based on individual performance and Company performance. The component of the bonus based on individual performance is conditioned on the individual meeting certain pre-determined objectives and the component of the bonus based on Company performance is based on the Company meeting certain performance goals.

Long-Term Incentives The Company's Long-Term Incentive Program serves to reward executive performance that successfully executes the Company's long-term business strategy and builds stockholder value. The program allows for the awarding of options and stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and performance units.

Section 162(m) Compensation Committee Report Disclosure

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") limits the Company's deduction for compensation paid to the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table to $1 million unless certain requirements are met. The policy of the Committee with respect to section 162(m) is to establish and maintain a compensation program which will optimize the deductibility of compensation. The Committee, however, reserves the right to use its judgment, where merited by the Committee's need to respond to changing business conditions or by an executive officer's individual performance, to authorize compensation which may not, in a specific case, be fully deductible to the Company.

The Compensation Committee will follow an annual cycle to administer each of the three components of executive compensation. The independent study of competitive compensation practices within the transportation industry will continue to be used as the benchmark to determine competitive compensation ranges for senior executives. Individual performance and contribution to the achievement of strategic objectives will be considered in the determination of annual compensation for each executive. The integrity of the Company's compensation program relies on an annual performance evaluation process.

Discussion of CEO Compensation

Consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy, the Compensation Committee approved Mr. David P. Yeager's total compensation during fiscal year 2004. Mr. Yeager's base salary was based on overall performance of the Company, on relative levels of compensation for CEOs within the benchmark companies in the transportation industry and on individual performance related to strategic objectives. Mr. Yeager's incentive compensation was based on achievement of goals relating to the Company's earnings per share target.

For 2004, the Compensation Committee approved a package allowing Mr. Yeager to earn $504,000 in salary and $306,123 in bonus if the Company met its earnings goal with the possibility to earn additional bonus if the Company exceeded its earnings goal. Mr. Yeager's 2004 salary represents a decrease of $54,123 from the amount that he would have otherwise received in order to enable the Company to lease certain assets, which Mr. Yeager used for personal purposes from time to time in 2004. In addition, in late 2003, Mr. Yeager was awarded 32,800 shares of restricted stock which vest ratably over a three year period in connection with his 2004 compensation package that had a value of $369,656 at the time of their grant. Mr. Yeager was paid his salary of $504,000 during 2004 and received a bonus of $558,123 due to the Company substantially exceeding its earnings target.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Hub Group's Certificate of Incorporation currently authorizes the issuance of a total of 15,000,000 shares of stock, consisting of 12,337,700 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, 662,300 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 2,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share. The proposed amendment would increase the total number of authorized shares of Class A Common Stock from 12,337,700 to 47,337,700 shares, and is being proposed for approval at the Annual Meeting.

The full text of the proposed amendment is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. The newly authorized shares of Class A Common Stock will constitute additional shares of the existing Class A Common Stock and, if and when issued, will have the same rights and privileges as the shares of Class A Common Stock currently authorized. The number of authorized shares of Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock would not be affected.

Reasons for the Proposed Amendment

On February 7, 2005, Hub Group's Board of Directors voted to recommend to the stockholders that the number of authorized shares of the Class A Common Stock of Hub Group be increased from 12,337,700 shares to 47,337,700 shares. At that meeting, the Board of Directors conditionally approved a two-for-one stock split to be effected in the form of a stock dividend of one (1) additional share of Class A Common Stock for each one (1) share of Class A Common Stock outstanding and one (1) additional share of Class A Common Stock for each one (1) share of Class B Common Stock outstanding on a date to be determined by the Board of Directors. The stock split is conditioned upon approval by the stockholders of the proposed amendment.

As of March 1, 2005, 9,771,647 shares of Class A Common Stock (each a "Class A Share") and 662,296 shares of Class B Common Stock were outstanding. The current number of authorized and unreserved shares of Class A Common Stock is insufficient to permit the stock split.

The proposed amendment will permit the Board of Directors to issue the additional shares to accommodate the stock split and afford the Board of Directors continued flexibility to issue shares of Class A Common Stock for valid corporate purposes, including acquisitions, financings and incentive compensation.

A stockholder vote against the proposed increase in the number of authorized shares of Hub Group Class A Common Stock will have the effect of preventing the stock split.

Purpose of the Stock Split

The currently proposed stock split is intended to place the market price of Hub Group's Common Stock in a range more attractive to investors, particularly individuals. The closing price of Hub Group's Class A Common Stock on NASDAQ on March 3, 2005 was $59.56, and closing prices in the month of February 2005 ranged from $54.26 to $61.84. In authorizing the stock split, the Board of Directors took into account that this trading range was higher than the range of many other major corporations, and believes that the proposed split of Hub Group Common Stock will bring the trading price of the Common Stock into a more accessible trading range.

Stock Split Implementation

If the proposed amendment is approved, holders of record of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock as of the close of business on a date to be determined by the Board of Directors will receive, as a stock dividend, one (1) additional share of Class A Common Stock for each one (1) share of the either Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock owned as of that date, including the shares owned by the directors and executive officers of Hub Group, as listed in the section "Ownership of The Capital Stock of the Company". The stockholders of Hub Group as of the record date will not pay, and Hub Group will not receive, any payment or other consideration for the additional shares that will be issued or the adjustments that will be made pursuant to the stock split.

Hub Group will apply to NASDAQ for listing of the additional shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued if the proposed amendment is approved. If the proposed amendment is approved, all holders of record of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock at 5:00 p.m., Central Time, on the proposed record date for the split, which will be determined by the Board of Directors, will receive a dividend distribution of one (1) additional share of Class A Common Stock for each one (1) share of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock that they own of record on that date.

Holders of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock should retain their Common Stock certificates issued prior to the stock split record date, and those certificates issued prior to that date will continue to represent the number of shares of Common Stock evidenced thereby. LaSalle Bank National Association, Hub Group's transfer agent, will deliver the additional shares of Class A Common Stock each holder of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock is entitled to as a result of the stock split registered in uncertificated book-entry form (unless a holder of Common Stock requests a certificate representing such holder's shares of Common Stock). As a result, instead of receiving Class A Common Stock certificates, holders of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock will receive account statements reflecting their ownership interest in shares of Class A Common Stock. The book-entry shares will be held with LaSalle Bank National Association, which will serve as the record keeper for all shares of Class A Common Stock being issued in connection with the stock split. Any stockholder who wants to receive a physical certificate evidencing shares of Class A Common Stock issued in the stock split will be able to obtain a certificate at no charge by contacting LaSalle Bank National Association at 135 S. LaSalle Street, Suite 1811, Chicago, IL 60603, Attn: Stock Transfer.

Holders of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock whose shares are held by a broker or other nominee in "street name" also will not receive certificates representing the new shares. Instead, their accounts will be credited with the new shares in accordance with the procedures used by their broker or nominee.

IMPORTANT NOTE: CERTIFICATES REPRESENTING SHARES OF COMMON STOCK ISSUED PRIOR TO THE STOCK SPLIT WILL CONTINUE TO REPRESENT THE SAME NUMBER OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE. THEREFORE, PLEASE DO NOT DESTROY OR RETURN YOUR EXISTING CERTIFICATES.

Accounting Effects of the Proposed Stock Split

If the proposed amendment is approved, an amount equal to the par value of shares issued in the stock split will be transferred from Hub Group's additional paid-in capital account to its common stock account. The $0.01 par value of both the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock will not change.

Tax Effects of the Stock Split

Hub Group has been advised that the proposed stock split will result in no gain or loss or realization of taxable income to owners of Common Stock under existing United States federal income tax laws. The tax basis of each share of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock held immediately before the stock split will be allocated pro rata between this original share and the new share of Class A Common Stock distributed with respect to the original share. Each new share will be deemed to have been acquired at the same time as the original share with respect to which the new share was issued. The laws of jurisdictions other than the United States may impose income taxes on the issuance of the additional shares, and stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisers.

Anti-Takeover Effects of the Proposed Amendment

The increase in the authorized number of shares of Class A Common Stock and the subsequent issuance of such shares could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change of control of Hub Group without further action by the stockholders. Shares of authorized and unissued Class A Common Stock could (within the limits imposed by applicable law) be issued in one or more transactions that would make a change of control of Hub Group more difficult, and therefore less likely. The additional authorized shares could be used to discourage persons from attempting to gain control of Hub Group, by diluting the voting power of shares then outstanding or increasing the voting power of persons who would support the Board of Directors in a potential takeover scenario.

In addition, the increased shares authorized by the proposed amendment could permit the Board of Directors to issue Class A Common Stock to persons supportive of management's position. Such persons might then be in a position to vote to prevent or delay a proposed business combination that is deemed unacceptable to the Board of Directors, although perceived to be desirable by some stockholders. Any such issuance could provide management with a means to block any vote that might be used to effect a business combination in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation.

Additional Effects of the Stock Split

Upon the effectiveness of the stock split, appropriate adjustments will be made to stock options and other stock-based instruments awarded and to be awarded under Hub Group's compensation, incentive and benefit programs.

Upon the effectiveness of the stock split, the number of votes per share to which the holders of shares of Class B Common Stock were entitled immediately prior to the stock split will be adjusted to represent the same proportionate voting power after the stock split. The adjustment will be made according to the following formula:

$$\text{Votes per share prior to split} \times \frac{\text{Class A Shares outstanding after split}}{\text{Class A Shares outstanding prior to split}}$$

No other adjustments will be made to the terms of the Class B Common Stock as a result of the stock split.

Under Delaware law, Hub Group's stockholders are not entitled to dissenters' rights with respect to the proposed amendment to Hub Group's Certificate of Incorporation. Furthermore, Hub Group's current holders of Class A Common Stocks do not have preemptive rights; nor will the holders of the Class A Common Stock issued as a result of the stock split. Not having preemptive rights means that holders of Class A Common Stock do not have the right to purchase shares in any future issuance of Common Stock in order to maintain their proportionate equity interests in Hub Group.

Although the Board of Directors will authorize the further issuance of Class A Common Stock after the stock split only when it considers such issuance to be in the best interests of Hub Group, stockholders should recognize that any such issuance of additional stock will have the effect of diluting the earnings per share and book value per share of outstanding shares of Common Stock and the equity and voting rights of holders of shares of Common Stock.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has unanimously approved the proposed amendment and has determined that the increase in authorized Class A Common Stock is in the best interests of Hub Group and its stockholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting as a class, is required to approve the proposed amendment. Any shares not voted (whether by abstention or broker non-votes) will have the effect of a vote against the proposed amendment.
